

Jalpaiguri Ananda Chandra College Alumni Association

INTRODUCTION

Ananda Chandra College, Jalpaiguri is one the oldest, reputed and prestigious college of North Bengal, under the University of North Bengal. The college has been performing important and pioneering role in the field of higher Education of the region since its establishment in 1942. . The college has produced huge number of luminous stars in various fields and they established themselves all over the world and making us proud with their works. For long time, A.C. college and some Alumni (ex-Students of the college interacted among themselves to form an Alumni Association of this pioneer and prestigious college to channelize the huge number of Alumni for the betterment of the college, present students as well as for the Alumni . On the eve of the Platinum jubilee of the college , the college authority and some local established and dignified Alumni took active initiative to form an Alumni Association on permanent ground to hold the Platinum Jubilee celebration throughout the year and to organize ceremonial programme of that and to take various pro-students pro- college initiatives s in future. For these purposes, in the beginning of the December, 2015 the college authority and dignified local alumni decided to hold a general meeting on 12/12/2015 in the college premises to form a primary committee and arrangements were made for the proper canvassing and propagation of the scheduled meeting. The college notified the meeting in its notice board on 4/12/2015, circulated the meeting through the college website www.accollege.org , fixed some flexes in different important places of the Jalpaiguri Town and also distributed leaflets (leaflet attached herewith) in the town. Local TV channel 'JCC' broad cast the scheduled meeting throughout the week (3-10 Dec, 2015) in scrolled form and the 'UttarBanga Sambad' published the news on 4/12/2015. Accordingly, the meeting held on the scheduled day i.e. 12.12.2015 in the room no. 14 of the college and about 70 Alumni including some oldest Alumni, attended the meeting. The meeting discussed various aspects for about 5 hours and finally resolved the following issues:

1. All the participants unanimously agreed to form 'Ananda Chandra College Alumni Association' (ACCAA)and accordingly the association formed with an executive Ad-hoc committee, consisting of the following members (see annexure-1) also took the following resolutions for initial activities:
2. Executive Ad-hoc committee empowered to work as working committee.
3. The committee empowered to carry out all official and financial activities of the association.
4. The committee empowered to take active imitative for the registration of the association under the society Registration ACTs.
5. The committee will open a website for circulation and registration of the memberships of the association by depositing / transferring Rs. 100 (Hundred only or Rs. 130 (Hundred thirty only) for outstation bank cheque.

The first meeting of the executive committee of the newly registered 'Jalpaiguri Ananda Chandra College Alumni association' held on 15/06/2016 at 3.30 PM in the staff room of the College. The Meeting was presided over by the President of the Association Dr. Ananda Gopal Ghosh and participated by 9 members including three special invitees. The Agenda of the First meeting of the Association after its registration were as follows:

1. To inform the Executive members of the association about its registration, minor change and some unavoidable complexities.
2. To design and to plan for future activities.
3. To decide the next course of action relating to Platinum Jubilee and NAAC visit of the College.
4. Miscellaneous.

After a long discussion, the committee resolved the following resolutions:

Resolution -I:

The committee resolved that in spite of some technical problems during the registration of the association, the executive committee, which had been formed in the first general meeting on 12/12/2015 at the room no 14 of the college with 21 members would be considered as the 'executive committee' of the association.

Resolution -II:

The committee resolved that a joint Saving Bank Account of the 'Jalpaiguri Ananda Chandra College Alumni Association' would be opened at the college para Branch of the Indian Overseas Bank for the financial transaction of the Association. The Savings A/C would be jointly operated by the treasurer Sri Malay Kanti Das and either President Dr. Ananda Gopal Ghosh or Secretary Dr. Parimal Bapari.

Resolution -III:

The committee resolved that registration and Life membership fees of the Association would be Rs 500.00 (rupees five hundred only) and General membership (Just Passing out students) fees would be Rs: 100.00 (Rupees one Hundred only). It is also resolved that the registration and membership fees may be reconsidered and it is subject to review in later days.

E. C. Resolution of First Meeting, 19/6/2016

Resolution –IV:

The committee resolved that those, who obtained membership earlier, would be considered as the members of the present association.

Resolution –V:

The committee resolved that the association presently would use the college Logo and a separate own logo on the all documents (like website, sign board, pad, forms, banners etc.) of the association. However the use of college Logo would be finalised by the G. B. resolution. The selection of the association's own Logo would be sent to open forum.

Resolution –VI:

The committee resolved that the present secretary and Treasurer will take active steps for the printing of the money receipt, Registration form etc. of the association as early as possible. They also have given responsibilities for hanging of a Board of the association in the entrance gate of the college. For wide publicity of the association some flexes would be hung in different prime places of Jalpaiguri Town and Local TV channel would be use in this regards.

Resolution –VII:

The committee also resolved that the association would actively participate in the college foundation day (2nd Sep), NACC Visit (7th, 8th & 9th Sep, 2016) and in the Platinum Jubilee celebration programme of the college.

Resolution –VIII:

The committee resolved that a prayer would be sent to the college GB for its approval for the use of the college Logo in the all documents of the association and for the compulsory registration of all passing out students of the college as the members of the association at the time of the collection of their final Mark sheets/ Diplomas/ certificates by filing up the general registration form (for Just Passing out students) of the association with Rs 100.00(one Hundred Only).
